

5 Levels of Autonomy

Level 05 Nirvana!

Level 04 Remote first, more effective and can benefit from global talent-pool, harnessing all the team has to offer

Level 03 Benefit from remote as effective as in person, some advantages

Level 02 Possible remote but less effective than in person

Level 01 No support to make remote

Jobs that can't be done remotely

Looking at the diagram to the left, which aspects of your organisation fit into each level?

Next, what could you do to move each of those things to the next level?
